

CURRICULUM VITAE

Mr. KANG, Byung-sam

Chief Manager
Seongnam Branch Office
Korea Legal Aid Corporation

Professional Employment

- [2014-Present] Sunnam Branch, Korea Legal Aid Corporation
- [2011-2013] Seoul Central Chapter, Korea Legal Aid Corporation
- [2009-2010] Suncheon Branch, Korea Legal Aid Corporation
- [2007-2008] Judicial Research & Training Institute of the Supreme Court of Korea

Biography

Byung-sam ‘Sammy’ Kang was born in Incheon, South Korea in 1980. He received a diploma in law, from the college of law, Korea University in 2007. Before graduation, he studied English in Massachusetts, United States, and served as public affairs specialist at Republic of Korea – United States Combined Forces Command from 2002 to 2004. He passed the Korean bar exam in 2006.

Upon graduation, Kang completed two years of additional legal training at the Judicial Research and Training Institute before appointed as a Korea Legal Aid Corporation staff attorney in 2009. Since then, he has been practicing as KLAC lawyer until now. He also is a member of instructors in KLAC Law-related Education Center since 2011.

He specializes in labor, and administrative litigation. His successful litigation includes winning cases on a refugee, international divorce, industrial hazard, inheritance, and so on, which made him to be awarded three times at KLAC Excellent Case Competition. His current position is Chief Manager of Seongnam Branch Office, which is in charge of providing legal aid for 1.4 million population in the region.