Financial Eligibility Criteria		Article2	Article 2.1.(1) &Article 2.2	Article 2.1.(2)&Article 2.2

Note

I. Monthly income limit: Except for one-person households, the standard of disposable income for each family shall be based on the middle-low-income household standards approved by the applicant's local municipal or county (city) competent authority under the Public Assistance Act.

II. Upper Limit on Disposable Assets: The total value of disposable assets increases by NTD150,000 for each additional family member starting from the third person. However, the calculation of disposable assets does not include the applicant's residence or private agricultural land which has declared present market value below NTD5,500,000. However, the central government or governments of special municipalities shall deduct accordingly from households holding immovable assets which have a declared present market value exceeding NTD5,500,000 during the current calendar year, in accordance with the standards for middle-low income households in the Public Assistance Act.
