

Mr. Pulkit Tare

Advocate-on-Record, Supreme Court of India
Visiting Professor– Indian Society of International Law (ISIL)

Education

B.S.L., LL. B (Fergusson College, Pune)
LL.M (Kent, U.K.)

Professional Employment

2016- Present:
Visiting Professor– Indian Society of International Law (ISIL)

2011- Present:
Advocate, Supreme Court of India

Biography

Mr. Pulkit Tare is a lawyer practicing in the Supreme Court of India having extensive experience in dealing with constitutional law, human rights, social justice issues, criminal law, election laws, arbitrations, commercial laws, taxation etc. He has several reported judgments and have worked with renowned legal luminaries including Judges of the Supreme Court & High Courts, Academicians and Solicitors including senior most law officers for the Union of India and States. He also serves as a Consultant to Ministry of Commerce, Ministry of Women and Child Development (Government of India), National Human Rights Commission (NHRC), Members of Parliament, Embassies for legal advice & policy formulation issues and also published articles and reports in the areas of access to justice, legal aid, social justice, human rights. He regularly conducts court cases on behalf of various Government Departments and Non-Governmental Organizations. In addition to pro-bono legal work along with active commercial practice of law providing services to diverse clients, he is also a visiting Professor of International Law in Indian Society of International Law (ISIL), New Delhi primarily teaching post graduate courses in International Human Rights Law and International Criminal Law.