Biography

Mr. Negami obtained the master degree in law and joined the JLSC in 2009. He started his career in the JLSC as a staff of Gunma Law Office, which locates in the Gunma District Office and has contributed to improving the access to justice in that area. After moving to Kawasaki Branch Office, he experienced to manage a variety of jobs such as the civil legal aid and the criminal legal aid.

When the JLSC established “Legal Social Work Promotion Office” within the HQs in 2016, he was selected one of the first members of the office. His experiences working in the law office in Gunma and operating the main services of the JLSC in Kawasaki have helped him effectively work for the enhancement of the legal social work.

Recently, the JLSC sent him to Nagano District Office for several months. At that time, he took a strong initiative to build a substantial cooperation between a social welfare organization in Nagano-City and the JLSC Nagano District Office, and successfully realized it.
