

Ms. Sinan Mavivo

Representative of Yami (Tao) , Council of Indigenous Peoples
Board Director, Tao Foundation
Committee Member, Legal Center of Indigenous Peoples, Legal Aid Foundation

Education

Master of Anthropology, Institute of Anthropology, National Tsing-Hua University
Bachelor of Religious Studies, Fu-Jen Catholic University

Professional Employment

- Accountant, Lan An Cultural and Educational Foundation
- Administrator, Funding Relationship Section, World Vision Taiwan
- Executive-Secretary, Taiwanese Indigenous Tribe Cultural and Educational Revitalization Foundation
- Office Assistant, 4th Office of Indigenous Legislator Walis Pelin, Legislative Yuan
- Student, 2nd National Leadership and Development Strategy Class for Indigenous Peoples, Ketagalan Institute
- Student, 2nd Indigenous Talent Cultivation Course for Television Industry
- Intern Journalist, Taiwan Public Television
- Director and Producer, Documentary “Yama Who Lives Beneath Mantou Rock”
- Intern and Substitute Teacher, Min-An Elementary School
- Substitute Teacher, Jia-Na Elementary School
- Native Language Teacher, Lanyu Elementary School
- Learning Support Teacher for Ethnic Students, Yeyou Elementary School
- Executive Secretary, Community Development Association, Yeyou Village, Lanyu Township
- Project Researcher, Federation for the Welfare of the Elderly
- Co-founder, Home Care Association of Lanyu Township
- Founder, Daycare Center for the Elderly, Yeyou Village, Lanyu Township
- Founder, Daycare Center for the Elderly, Iraralay Village, Lanyu Township
- Candidate for Legislator-at-Large, Green Party Taiwan, 8th Legislative Yuan Election
- Member, Central Executive Committee, Green Party Taiwan
- Candidate for Mayor of Lanyu Township, 17th Municipal Election
- Member, Indigenous Cultural Asset Promotion Team, Council of Indigenous Peoples
- Personal Assistant, Office of Legislator Yu-Chin Wu, Legislative Yuan
- Executive Director, Tao Foundation