

Ms. Julie Bishop

Director
Law Centres Network
UK

Professional Employment

2008-2018

Director, Law Centres Network, UK

2002-2008

Director, National Association of Community Legal Centres,

1983-2002

Various Roles, Information Technology

1978-1983

Tutor, Philosophy, University of Sydney

Biography

For over 25 years Julie has been engaged with the legal aid system, professionally and as a volunteer. Julie's focus has been on facilitating access to justice for people who are vulnerable and without means. Initially this was through the development of digital systems for community legal centres in Australia and then as Director of NACLC for 5 years and most recently, as Director of LCN in the UK. Prior to this Julie studied and taught Philosophy.