

Ms. Ta Thi Minh Ly

Chairwomen,
Vietnam Justice Support Association for the Poor (VIJUSAP)

Education

1975-1981
LLB & BA of Russian, Kishinev University (Moldova)

1991-1995
Doctor in Law, Hanoi Law University

Professional Employment

July 2011-Present
Chairwoman, Vietnam Judicial Support Association for the poor (VIJUSAP)

July 2011-Present
Lawyer & Consultant on Legal Aid, Hanoi Bar Association

May 1997-Feb 2012
Director, National Legal Aid Agency, Ministry of Justice (MOJ)

March 1994-April 1997
Vice Director, Department of Advocacy and Legal Consultancy, Ministry of Justice (MoJ)
(in charge of international law firm branches and legal consultant network in Vietnam)

November 1981-1994
Legal Official, Chief of the Criminal Procedure Division, and Vice Director of the Administrative and Criminal Law Department, Ministry of Justice

Ms. Ta Thi Minh Ly has also been the member (or even the head) of numerous Bill Drafting Committees, such as Criminal Procedure Code, laws on legal aid, primary education, care, education and child protection, lawyers, government organizations, marriage and family, health protection, etc. She has also been participating in several expert groups, researching and making submissions to National Assembly regarding the implementation of many international human rights conventions such as Convention on the Rights of the Child (CRC), drug control conventions, and the Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women (CEDAW), etc.