Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees

- Sponsor of the Public Attorney's Office in training sessions that enhance and strengthen the competence of the public attorneys in assisting refugees and stateless persons for more than five (5) years now.

Memorandum of Understanding (MOU) between the Public Attorney's Office (PAO) & the Office of the United Nations High Commissioner for Refugees (UNHCR) in the Philippines

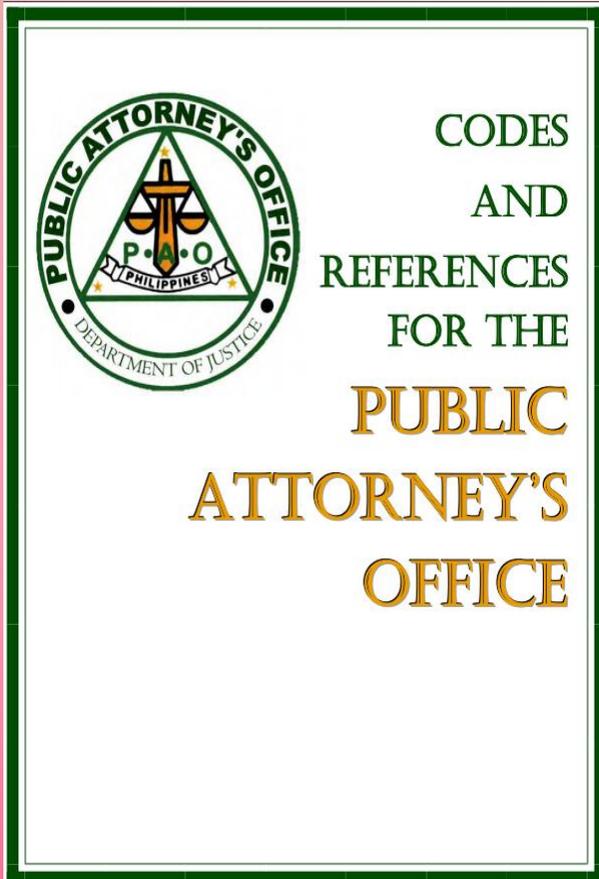

- Pursuant to this MOU, the PAO renders free legal assistance, counselling and representation to refugees, stateless persons and those seeking recognition as refugees and/or stateless persons in the Philippine context, provided that such persons qualify as indigents.
- The original MOU was signed on January 8, 2013, and took effect immediately upon the signing thereof. The same was renewed for a period of two (2) years on March 15, 2015. In view of the positive outcome of the collaboration between the PAO and UNHCR, the parties agreed to renew the original MOU for another period of two (2) years. The signing of the latest renewed MOU was held on April 6, 2017 at the PAO-Central Office.

USAID
FROM THE AMERICAN PEOPLE

United States Agency for International Development (together with the American Bar Association - Rule of Law Initiative)

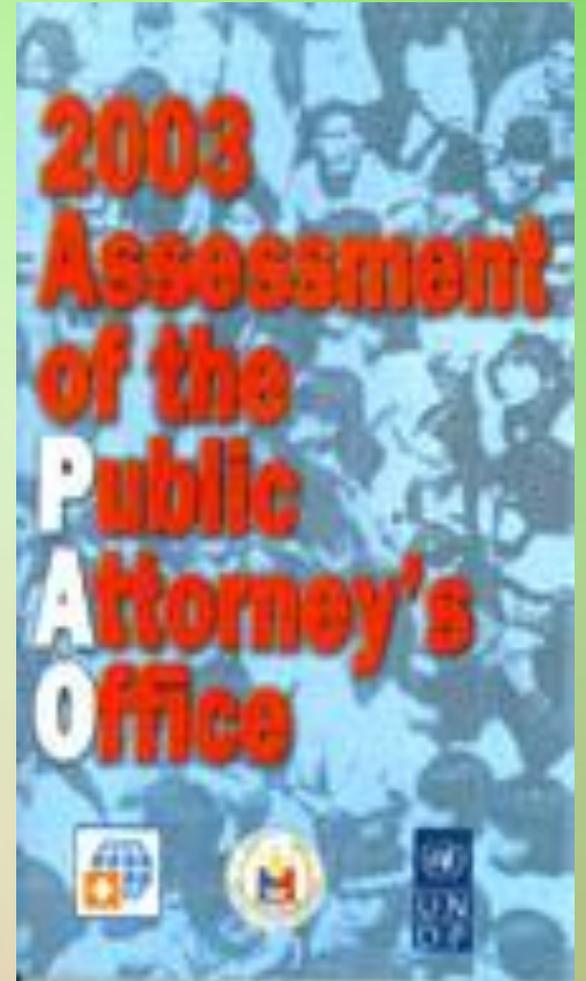

- Supported the Public Attorney's Office in publishing the "Codes and References for the Public Attorney's Office".
- This book compiles the rules of conduct that must be observed by public attorneys and support staff, and the procedures to be observed by them in the handling of cases and other client concerns.
- It also gives the details in the procedures of handling special types of clients and cases which include women and their children who are victims of domestic violence, children in conflict with the law, and credit card delinquency problem.

United Nations Development Programme

United Nations Development Programme

- It funded the study entitled, 2003 Assessment of the Public Attorney's Office (Conducted by La Salle Institute of Governance with the Supreme Court of the Philippines)
- UNDP: “The ability of an organization to motivate its staff rests not only on monetary terms. Apparently, in the PAO the psychic rewards of helping the poor are very strong.”
- The said study contributed greatly to the approval of Republic Act 9406 or the PAO Law on March 23, 2007.

The United Nations Office of Drugs and Crime (UNODC) invited the Chief Public Attorney to two (2) international legal aid events stated below with her corresponding roles therein, to wit:

Resource Person, Open-Ended Intergovernmental Meeting of Experts on Access to Legal Aid in Criminal Justice Systems, November 16-18, 2011, Vienna, Austria;

Panel Speaker, International Conference on Access to Legal Aid in Criminal Justice Systems (co-hosted with the Government of South Africa, Legal Aid South Africa, together with the International Legal Foundation, and the United Nations Development Programme), June 24-26, 2014, Johannesburg, South Africa which somehow led to her participation to its project, Model Law on Legal Aid in Criminal Justice Systems with Commentaries that was published by the said international organization in 2017.

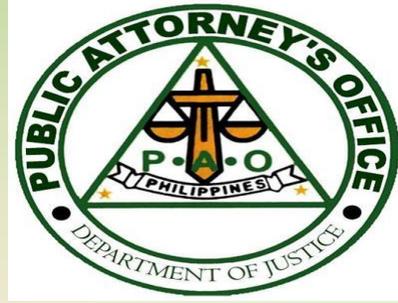

- The UNODC acknowledged the Chief Public Attorney's comments to the draft Model Law on Legal Aid in Criminal Justice Systems with Commentaries.
- Exposure to the said global gathering enriches her insights on legal aid and enables the transfer of knowledge from the said international fora and related activities to the Public Attorney's Office (through her) and other venues and endeavors where she serves as a Resource Person.

Bureau of Corrections and Bureau of Jail Management and Penology

- Partners of the Public Attorney's Office in its outreach programs for the inmates.
- Supervise the prisons and jails in the Philippines that are in-charge with the rehabilitation and safekeeping of the inmates in the country.

Department of Social Welfare and Development

- Partner of the Public Attorney's Office in a joint project, for three (3) of the vulnerable sectors in Philippine society: the victims of Violence Against Women and Children, Children in Conflict with the Law, and prospective adoptees in adoption cases.
- This is in connection with their Memorandum of Agreement, dated October 9, 2013.
- In view of the said agreement between the two (2) offices, the psychosocial intervention and debriefing services of the Department of Social Welfare and Development are being made available to abovementioned clients they share with the Public Attorney's Office.

Memorandum of Agreement Between the Public Attorney's Office and the Department of Social Welfare and Development

The Department of Social Welfare and Development also commits to provide the following services:

- Ensure that the client understands the questions propounded and comprehends terms and concepts, and other psycho-social matters which will assist the court or agency in properly dealing with the client's testimony. The Department of Social Welfare and Development shall hold debriefing sessions for the client after every court appearance (Part III, e);
- Provide or assign social workers in tandem with the Public Attorney's Office, including coordinating between the said Office and the client, and the latter's witnesses (psychologists, police, doctors) and arranging conferences/meeting between or among them upon the request of the Public Attorney's Office (Ibid., f);
- Coordinate with the appropriate government agencies or institutions with respect to a particular case, if needed, to assist in the speedy and successful disposition of the case, and to ensure the continuing cooperation and support of the client in the prosecution of the case (Id., g).

Memorandum of Agreement Between the Public Attorney's Office and the Department of Social Welfare and Development

The Public Attorney's Office agrees to fulfill the following commitments:

- Monitor and supervise the activities of the Public Attorneys and paralegals assigned to handle the cases and provide them with the continuing skills, training, consultative dialogues and organizational support in order to improve their services. The Public Attorney's Office, in partnership with DSWD, shall also conduct trainings and consultative dialogues (Part III, 3);
- Assist the DSWD in policy formulation and advocacy for the protection and advancement of the best interest of women and children (Part IV, a);
- Provide resource persons for the DSWD's training programs on law and programs for women and children (Ibid., b);
- Conduct legal aid clinics in DSWD centers and institutions catering to children in conflict with the law and women and children who are victims of violence" (Id., c).

Memorandum of Agreement Between the Public Attorney's Office and the Department of Social Welfare and Development

- Based on the said provisions, the Public Attorney's Office commits to be with the DSWD in every stage of the cases of their shared clients until the granting of the court's final decision; also in the drafting of policy and advocacy, in being of assistance to social workers in outreach programs, like legal clinics, for the beneficiaries of their Memorandum of Agreement, and in conducting trainings.
- One such training was the seminar series entitled, "Capacitating PAO Lawyers for Enhanced Protective Services." It was a series of five (5) seminars – three (3) were held in 2015 and two (2) in 2016.
