BIOGRAPHY

Kory Wilson (Kwakwaka'wakw), BSc. JD, is the Executive Director of Indigenous Initiatives and Partnerships for British Columbia Institute of Technology (BCIT). She created and led the launch of BCIT's Indigenous Vision. In June 2022, BCIT Indigenous Initiatives and Partnerships was awarded the Gold Award for Excellence in Global Indigenous Education. She is Co-chair of the World Federation of Colleges and Polytechnics Indigenous Affinity Group.

Kory has over 20 years of experience in post-secondary education, community development, and legal profession. She was instrumental in the creation of six open-sourced BC Campus Indigenization Guides. She serves on many boards from Pearson College, BC Women's Health Foundation, Downie Wenjack Fund, Future Skills Canada, and she is Chair of the BC First Nations Justice Council. A sought-after speaker and strategist on advancing and 'truth-telling' about the past and moving forward towards Reconciliation. With a deep commitment to education, she knows innovative and creative solutions are a must to move Reconciliation into ReconciliACTION.
