

施逸翔

Yi-Hsiang Shih

- Secretary-General,
Taiwan Association for Human Rights

EDUCATION

M.A. in Philosophy, Soochow University

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

- 2011 - present Taiwan Association for Human Rights
- 2011 - 2016 Executive Secretary, Covenants Watch
- 2008 - 2010 Research Assistant, Department of Political Science, Soochow University
- 2006 - 2008 PeaceTime Foundation of Taiwan

AREAS OF EXPERTISE

transformative justice, International Bill of Human Rights, human rights of migrant workers

BIOGRAPHY

Yi-hsiang Shih, the current Secretary-General of the Taiwan Association for Human Rights, was enlightened in 2005 when he went to the Philippines to conduct a fact-finding mission on the human rights massacre at Hacienda Luisita. He has been working as a human rights worker for more than ten years now. Issues he focuses on include transitional justice, international human rights conventions, migrant workers and foreign fishermen, and Human Rights Responsibilities of Businesses.