BIOGRAPHY

Dr. Jin Ho Verdonschot focuses on issues of access to justice, justice innovation and justice leadership. His prior work includes work as academic, as social entrepreneur, and as advisor for ministries, judiciaries, legal aid providers across the globe. With his colleagues at the Knowledge Centre Legal Aid System (accommodated by the Legal aid Board Netherlands), he currently works on the realization of a learning legal aid system. Via (amongst others) feedback loops, the Knowledge Centre collects data that indicate how well the legal aid system is functioning for citizens, professionals, and society at large. These data are processed into information that helps policymaking to become more evidence-based.
