

Madam Justice Lore Mirwaldt

Court of King's Bench of MANITOBA

Biography

Madam Justice Mirwaldt holds a Bachelor of Law from Robson Hall Law School, University of Manitoba. Most of her 32 years as a lawyer were spent in Northern Manitoba, where her areas of practice included family law, child protection, civil litigation, criminal law, employment law and First Nations governance. She was appointed Queen's Counsel in 1995. From 2009 to 2016 she served as an Adjudicator under the Indian Residential Schools Settlement Agreement.

On October 20, 2016 Madam Justice Mirwaldt was appointed to the Court of King's Bench (Family Division) in Winnipeg. She has served on the Oversight Committee of the New Child Protection Model, the New Family Division Model Implementation Committee and is now Chair of the Trust, Reconciliation and Access to Justice Committee. She also contributed to the development of the Canadian Judicial Council Best Practices Guide for Family Law Case Management.