

Professor (Dr)

Nicola Henry

- Australian Research Council (ARC) Future Fellow
- Social Equity Research Centre
- RMIT University
- Melbourne, Australia

Education

- 1997: Bachelor of Arts (Hons, 1st class) (University of Canterbury)
- 1999: Masters of Arts (Political Science) (University of Canterbury)
- 2005: Ph.D. (Criminology) (University of Melbourne)

Experience

- 2017 – present: RMIT University (Associate Professor; Professor)
- 2007-2017: La Trobe University (Lecturer; Senior Lecturer)
- Previous employment record can be provided upon request

Biography

Nicola Henry is a Professor and Australian Research Council (ARC) Future Fellow in the Social Equity Research Centre at RMIT University in Melbourne, Australia. Nicola is a socio-legal scholar with over two decades of research experience in the sexual violence field. Her research investigates the nature, prevalence and impacts of sexual violence, including legal and prevention responses in Australian and international contexts. Her current research focuses on technology-facilitated sexual violence and image-based sexual abuse. Nicola is currently undertaking an ARC Future Fellowship on digital tools, policies and platforms and image-based sexual abuse. She is also a Chief Investigator for numerous other projects on sexual violence and online abuse.