

王曉丹 Wang, Hsiao-Tan

Professor,
Law and Interdisciplinary Studies,
National Chengchi University (NCCU)

Education

- Ph.D. in Law

Experience

- Vice Dean of the College of Law, National Chengchi University (2021-2023)
- Director of the Institute of Law and Interdisciplinary Studies, National Chengchi University (2021-2023)

Biography

Hsiao-Tan Wang is Professor of sociology of law at the College of Law, National Chengchi University, Taiwan. Her research spans the anthropology of law, human rights and gender law. She has conducted extensive empirical studies on the decolonization of law for indigenous peoples, legal courts and dispute resolution in Taiwan, national and international anti-human trafficking regulations, and gender violence and human rights. Professor Wang has been recognized for her significant theoretical and practical contributions to the concepts of legal consciousness and legal transplants, receiving the Chengchi University Research Award in 2014, 2015 and 2017, 2020, 2022, and 2023.